

Name _____ Date _____

Reflective Writing Rubric

Use the following criteria to guide you as you write your reflection.

Criteria	Levels of Performance
	Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Progressing Toward Expectations	Clearly Below Expectations
Subject	Reflection thoroughly addresses the topic and/or question posed in the prompt.	Reflection addresses some aspects of the topic and/or prompt.	Reflection addresses few aspects of the topic and/or prompt.	Reflection is off-task or makes little reference to the topic and/or prompt.
Quality	Reflection is thoughtful, carefully written, and demonstrates significant depth of self-reflection on the topic.	Reflection is carefully written and generally demonstrates considerable depth of self-reflection on the topic.	Reflection shows lapses in care and depth of self-reflection regarding the task at hand.	Reflection is not thoughtfully written and does not demonstrate understanding of the topic or assignment.
Clarity	Reflection is clear, logical, and articulate.	Reflection is mostly clear and logical.	Reflection is somewhat unclear and has gaps in logic.	Reflection is unclear and may ramble from idea to idea.
Mechanics	Reflection has no grammatical, spelling, or usage errors.	Reflection contains some grammatical, spelling, or usage errors.	Reflection contains several grammatical, spelling, or usage errors.	Reflection contains frequent grammatical, spelling, or usage errors and is generally poorly written.

© 2013 National Geographic Society