

Jerusalem Contest

Contest Regulations

1. This contest is organized by the OPMC (Old Port of Montréal Corporation, hereinafter “contest organizer”) and runs from March 24 to April 9, 2021, inclusively.

CONTEST DURATION

2. The contest begins at noon on March 24, 2021. The contest ends at noon on April 6, 2021.

ADMISSIBILITÉ

3. This contest is open to elementary and secondary school teachers (hereinafter “participating teachers”) residing in Canada aged 18 and over. Those ineligible to enter this contest include employees, agents and representatives of the Old Port of Montréal Corporation, its advertising and promotional agencies, the suppliers of the prize(s), materials and services related to this contest, and any other party directly related to this contest, including all members of their immediate families (siblings, children, father, mother), their legal or common-law spouses, and all persons living with said employees, agents and representatives.

HOW TO ENTER

4. NO PURCHASE REQUIRED. To enter the contest, participants must fill out the following entry form:

<https://webmestre039086.typeform.com/to/vM5rSWdK>

They must also provide their contact information on the entry form to allow the OPMC to contact them should they be declared the winner. The winner's name (hereinafter “winner”) will be drawn from all completed entry forms.

TO BE WON

5. The winner will win an exclusive virtual meet-up with Jerusalem film director Daniel Ferguson. The film director and the class winning the draw will meet virtually either through the Zoom or Teams platforms. The meeting will be private. Under no circumstance will it be shared or broadcast. The date of the meeting will be determined based on the availabilities of the class and the director.

DRAW

6. The draw will be held on April 12 at 10 a.m. at the Old Port of Montréal Corporation, located at 333 de la Commune Ouest in Montréal (Québec).

GENERAL CONDITIONS

8. Chances of winning are based on the number of eligible entries received throughout the duration of the contest.

9. The OPMC will contact the winner by email within ten (10) business days following the day of the draw.

10. Passes will be sent to the winner by postal mail and must be distributed to students in the winning classroom.

11. The prize package in its entirety holds no monetary value and cannot be extended.

12. The contest organizer, its employees, agents and representatives shall not be held responsible for any faulty operation of any technological component, software or line of communication, the loss or absence of network connectivity, or any incomplete transmission or transmission malfunction, error, or deletion caused by any computer or network that could thereby limit or prevent participants to enter the contest. The contest organizer, its employees, agents and representatives shall neither be held responsible for any damages or loss that could arise, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from downloading content from any web page or any software, or through the submission of any information related to entering the contest.

13. The contest organizer may disqualify any entries that are incomplete, submitted dishonestly, or that do not meet eligibility criteria. The contest organizer shall not be held responsible for lost or late entries or entries containing any kind of error. The contest organizers shall neither be held responsible for errors or omissions contained in the marketing materials related to this contest. All contest entries become the sole property of the contest organizer and none will not be returned.

14. The prize package must be accepted as described in these regulations and may not be replaced by or exchanged for any other prize. The prize package may only be transferred, in whole or in part, to another person with the written authorization of the contest organizer.

15. The persons on behalf of whom the contest is held shall accept no liability whatsoever in any event where their inability to act is the result of an event or circumstance that is beyond their control, of a malfunction of a transmission line or of a strike, lockout or any other labour dispute in their establishments or the establishments of organizations or firms whose services are used to run this contest.

16. The contest organizer reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to cancel, terminate, modify or suspend this contest in whole or in part in the event of a computer virus or bug, unauthorized human intervention, or any other occurrence beyond its control that could corrupt or adversely affect the administration, security, impartiality or normal operation of the contest, subject to the approval of the Régie des Alcools, des Courses et des Jeux du Québec, as the case may be.

17. The winner release from any liability the OPMC, its affiliates, franchisees, parent companies and affiliated companies, as well as their employees, agents and representatives for damages of any kind, including but not limited to, damages following any accident, injury, death, loss, delays, loss of enjoyment, mishaps, annoyances, disappointments or physical or mental anxieties or frustrations that may result from the acceptance or the use of the prize.

18. By entering this contest, any winners agree to allow, without any compensation, the contest organizer to use, for promotional purposes across any media platform including the OPMC's websites, their name, photograph, likeness, voice or statements related to the contest and the prize package.

19. The contest shall be governed by these regulations subject to any modifications made by the contest organizer. All contest participants must comply with the contest regulations and, by entering the contest, are presumed to have read and understood them. Conditions of the contest, as outlined in these regulations, cannot be modified nor be used in any counteroffer except as outlined herein.

20. Any dispute relating to the conduct of any promotional contest may be submitted to the Régie des alcools, des courses et des jeux (hereinafter "Régie") for a ruling. Any dispute relating to the awarding of a prize may also be submitted to the Régie but only for the purpose of helping the parties reach a settlement.
